About the contents
These are based on the levels and guidelines of the Common European Framework for Languages:

- Absolute beginners (A1)
- Near beginners (A1-A2)
- Lower intermediate (A2-B1)
- Intermediate (B1-B2)
- Upper intermediate (B2-C1)
- Advanced (C2)

We have also indicated where each magazine might fit into UK Key Stages.

Always up-to-date
ELI magazines bring the latest news about well-known personalities and events in the countries and regions where the language is spoken. Exciting articles and top quality graphics make these magazines a unique way of involving students actively in their language learning.

Famous personalities
To engage the emotional interest of the reader, a number of well-known singers, sporting heroes, actors and directors are profiled, many of them known for their involvement in a variety of worthwhile causes.

Teaching units
Every magazine is not just a good read, but a self-contained, well-structured teaching unit, that is easy to use in the classroom. The vocabulary, grammatical structures and functions - introduced via original illustrated dictionaries - are repeated throughout the issue, making learning and memorising easier.

Grammy
This symbol indicates the grammatical point being dealt with on each page.

Intercultural understanding
High quality photos, engaging activities, along with wide-ranging reports, articles and interviews, all stimulate learning about the culture and traditions of the countries where each language is spoken.
